

Latin root script (scrip, scrib)

“to write”

TABLE 1

ROOTS AND AFFIXES			SENTENCE
	script		Betsy’s movie script was rejected by the director.
post-	script		He wrote a postscript at the end of his letter.
	scribe		In ancient days, only the scribe knew how to write.
	scrib	-ble	Did the toddler scribble all over your homework?
de-	scribe		How would you describe an elephant?
manu	script		The scientist wrote a manuscript on her chosen topic.
	scrip	-ture	Pastor Koenig read the scripture from the Bible.
pre-	scribe		Her doctor will prescribe a medication.
pre-	script	-ion	Dr. Mayo wrote a prescription for an antibiotic.
sub-	script	-ion	Gregory signed up for a yearly subscription to Boy’s Life .
trans-	script	-ion	Did the secretary type up a transcription of the meeting?
in-	script	-ion	The inscription on his tombstone was weathered and worn.